

Meditating On God's Word

On my bed I remember you; I think of you through the watches of the night (Psa 63:6). My eyes stay open through the watches of the night, that I may meditate on your promises (Psa 119:148). Oh, how I love your law! I meditate on it all day long (Psa 119:97).

Do not let this Book of the Law depart from your mouth; meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful to do everything written in it. Then you will be prosperous and successful. (Josh 1:8)

Within your temple, O God, we meditate on your unfailing love. (Psa 48:9)

I will meditate on all your works and consider all your mighty deeds. (Psa 77:12)

I meditate on your precepts and consider your ways. (Psa 119:15)

Though rulers sit together and slander me, your servant will meditate on your decrees. (Psa 119:23)

Let me understand the teaching of your precepts; then I will meditate on your wonders. (Psa 119:27)

I lift up my hands to your commands, which I love, and I meditate on your decrees. (Psa 119:48)

May the arrogant be put to shame for wronging me without cause; but I will meditate on your precepts. (Psa 119:78)

I have more insight than all my teachers, for I meditate on your statutes. (Psa 119:99)

I remember the days of long ago; I meditate on all your works and consider what your hands have done. (Psa 143:5)

They will speak of the glorious splendor of your majesty, and I will meditate on your wonderful works. (Psa 145:5)
