The evidence reveals that Alphonsus Liguori was an idolater. He was not holy, righteous or sound in doctrine. He was a spiritual snare to precious Catholic people. Please contrast with your Bible the following quotes from his popular book, The Glories of Mary, which the Catholic church has endorsed, praised and reprinted for hundreds of years.

The Glories of Mary by St. Alphonsus de Liguori, 1931 ed., p. 220.

Blessed Virgin Mary, says the same thing. As did also Jesus, before him. He says: "Virginia! This is my salvation." And we may see that they did not speak at random, let us examine what other saints and learned men have said on this subject, and let us, on the contrary, express all of them. There are all alike, for I wish to have given them all, in order to show you how unanimous the witnesses have been on the subject.

St. Anselm says: "That as it is impossible for one who is not devoted to Mary, and consequently not protected by her, to be saved, so it is impossible for those from whom Mary turns her eyes of mercy to be saved, so also are those towards whom she turns those eyes, and for whom she prays, necessarily saved and glorified." Consequently the clients of Mary will necessarily be saved.

Let us pay particular attention to the first part of the opinion of these saints, and let them tremble who make but little account of their devotion to the most holy Mother, or from carelessness give it up. They say that the salvation of those who are not protected by Mary is impossible.

The Glories of Mary, Alphonse de Liguori, 1931, Redemptorist Fathers, p. 658.

Practices of Devotion.

The Glories of Mary, Alphonse de Liguori, 1931, Redemptorist Fathers, p. 659.

The Glories of Mary, Alphonse de Liguori, 1931, Redemptorist Fathers, p. 659.

Evangelical Outreach
PO Box 265, Washington PA 15301
EvangelicalOutreach.org  ◆  EternalLifeBlog.com